The Thunderbird Select Hoops program will be offering low-cost pre-season basketball clinics to help boys prepare for the upcoming basketball season and the fast-approaching Thunderbird Select Hoops team tryouts (Oct. 5-8). Ben Scheffler, who coached the Thunderbird 8th graders last year, is offering Fall training sessions which will be broken into age-specific groups of 5th/6th graders and 7th/8th graders. Coach Scheffler is a former SPU men's basketball assistant coach. He is experienced in working with youth basketball players and has organized many camps, clinics and youth leagues. During the Fall clinic sessions, Coach Scheffler will cover fundamentals of the game, including shooting, rebounding, passing, ball-handling, and defensive positioning.
